Re: Re: Finley v. County of Marin, et al., Case No. C07 5922 THE

Dear Mr. Brown:

You called me today regarding the improper deposition subpoena to Linda Daube. You again insisted that Ms. Daube must be produced at deposition by again claiming all objections have been waived. I asked you to continue the meet in confer by letter, telling you that you must address all objections made to the deposition subpoena. You said there was no need to continue the "paper trail" if Ms. Daube is not going to be produced for deposition. I told you the deposition subpoena was improper, and you would need to bring a motion to compel. If you change your position and cease insisting that all objections to the deposition have been waived, and cease to refuse to discuss the objections to the deposition subpoena, I invite you to continue the meet and confer process.

Sincerely,

Stephen R. Raab
Attorney for Linda Daube
